

Dictation for Spelling Shark 1

One day, Mr and Mrs Brown and their children were going on holiday. When they went to leave the house, their little old dog saw them going and was very upset. He came to the door and tried to get out, but Mr Brown said, 'I'm sorry about this but you can't come out. Don't you know that you have to stay here by yourself?' There were some tears from the children as they came to help their dad so they could still leave on time. 'What would you like us to do Dad?' They asked. 'It's OK,' he replied, 'just make sure that your beds have been made!'
