

Spelling Shark 8

A _____, _____ chef once worked for a _____ in London called _____. She was _____ so good that the _____ food critics often found it _____ to _____ any _____ in their reviews. They regularly had to ask their _____ to look up new words in _____ so that their reviews would contain more varied and _____. _____ to her _____ colleagues, this brilliant and _____ chef would _____ lots of her _____ time to ensure that she _____ the best tasting food each time she cooked.

However, there was a group of _____ male chefs who did not _____ that an _____ _____ was doing so well and were _____ to _____ her cooking _____ and ultimate rise to fame. Their _____ minds worked together to _____ a devious plan that would _____ with some of her _____ dishes - in particular her award winning dish of '_____ Royale with _____ of Lamb _____ with seasonal vegetables'. They were not _____ men, but it was _____ the _____ of the _____ pace within the food industry that caused them to react in this negative way.